TRANSCRIPTION

Amsterdam, December 5, 1960

Dear Mr. Køpcke,

I herewith request you whether you still have my 3 paintings in your possession, or did you have already sold them?¹

If not, would you please be kind enough to send them back to me!

For the event you h&ve sold them, could you please remit the money to me?

If you should like to still keep my paintings in consignment, then I would beg you to please exhibit them regularly for me and to announce them on your posters and invitation-cards.

From Henk Peeters I was glad to hear that you are in good health.

Furthermore I would kindly request you to inform me all about Mr. Donskoy and the Hytler Galery [Galerie Hybler], as I am bringing an action against Mr. Donskoy, so I need as many informations as possible.²

Thanking you in anticipation and wishing you good success for the future, I am looking forward to hearing from you and remain,

Yours faithfully,

Cremer

¹ Muligvis havde Køpcke inkluderet disse billeder i en ophængning, der fandt sted i Holbæk Jazzklub i februar 1960. Ifølge Holbæk Amts Venstreblad den 20. februar 1960 omfattede ophængningen værker af Køpcke, Cremer, Erik Winther, Victoria m.fl.

² Cremer havde udstillet sammen med Børge Sornum i Galerie Hybler i november 1959. Af en annonce i Berlingske Tidende den 18. november 1959 fremgår det, at Galerie Donskoy stod bag Cremers deltagelse, mens Hybler præsenterede Sornum.
