DOKUMENTINDHOLD

Reeder takker for invitationskortene [?], han er ked af, at han ikke har hørt fra Køpcke noget før. Han fortæller, at han har skrevet til Nicolaus og bedt ham returnere gouacherne, da han skal sende dem til U.S.A. Han og hans kone rejser til Portugal, de har begge brug for forandring og ro. Han takker for udstillingen og håber, at den medførte noget godt. Hvis der kommer omtaler eller notitser i aviserne, vil han meget gerne have kopier. Han beklager, at han ikke kunne komme til København, måske en anden gang.

Dear Mr. Køpcke:

Thank you for the announcements, sorry not to have heard from you sooner. I have written Nicolaus to please return the gouaches to the above address as soon as possible as I have to send some of them to the U.S.A. when I return from Portugal - My wife has to go to some quiet sunny place to recuperate and we've chosen a place in the south - we both need a change and rest. We will return in two weeks, leaving Paris Mon. Oct. 20th. - I hope I did some good for you and thank you again for the exhibit. If there are any newspaper notices or publicity of any kind I'd be most grateful if you would send me copies - sorry I didn't get to Copenhagen and meet you in person. Perhaps another time. My best wishes to you and the galerie.

Sincerely

Dickson Reeder
